AFTECH Unit of Fiserv Adds Transmission Builders FCU to Client List

Malvern, Pa., Sept. 27, 2005 - AFTECH, a provider of core processing services to credit unions nationwide and a business unit of Fiserv, Inc. (Nasdaq: FISV), added Transmission Builders Federal Credit Union, Kokomo, Ind., to its Advantage in-house client list. The 13,500-member credit union will convert to the AFTECH system in April, 2006.

Transmission Builders FCU's investment in AFTECH brings to the $67 million credit union the full range of AFTECH's Advantage member service products. In addition, the credit union will be offering aftech@net, the Fiserv business unit's home banking product, as well as real-time credit and debit card processing, all backed by AFTECH's disaster recovery services.

"We are very excited about this system, as we are experiencing phenomenal growth even though we are tied to the automotive industry," said Rick Huffman, Transmission Builders FCU's board chairman. "Your system will go a long way in enhancing our goals."

AFTECH, a unit of Fiserv, Inc., provides the Advantage core processing system to credit unions either through in-house capabilities or as an ASP, as well as best-of-breed Internet member service tools, including aftech@net.

Fiserv, Inc. (Nasdaq: FISV) provides information management systems and services to the financial and health benefits industries, including transaction processing, business process outsourcing and software and systems solutions. The company serves more than 16,000 clients worldwide, including banks, credit unions, financial planners and investment advisers, insurance companies and agents, self-funded employers, lenders and savings institutions. Headquartered in Brookfield, Wis., Fiserv reported $3.4 billion in processing and services revenues for 2004.

Fiserv was ranked the largest provider of information technology services to the U.S. financial services industry in the 2004 FinTech 100 survey by the American Banker newspaper and the Financial Insights research firm.
